

Number of purchases by genre

Based on the analyzed data, rock emerges as the leading genre in terms of sales (purchases), followed by Latin, Metal, and Alt & Punk, respectively. It's worth noting that this analysis is based on data from genres with a minimum of 15 or more purchases.

Purchases by Media Type

Media Type by Sales

According to the data represented in the pie chart, the predominant media format is MPEG audio, with AAC audio files and Protected AAC files coming in as the second and third most commonly used formats, respectively.

Top 10 Artists by sales

In the global music sales ranking, Iron Maiden claimed the coveted top position, with U2 securing the second spot. Metallica closely followed, and Led Zeppelin took the fourth position. Subsequently, the next six artists exhibited sales figures that were in close proximity to each other.

Money spent vs Number of tracks Sold

- The USA and Canada are the largest markets in terms of sales and tracks sold. European countries collectively have a significant share of the market, with Germany having the highest sales among them.